

Calls to Action Study Group

with Dr. Niigaanwewidam Sinclair

Please join us for a Calls to Action Study Group series guided by the insights and teachings of Dr. Niigaan Sinclair!

May 6, May 20, June 3, June 17 | 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM | Online

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action are not simply recommendations. They come from Residential Schools Survivors' testimony and they are a fundamental roadmap for transforming relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples across what is now known as Canada.

Together, we will explore:

- What the Calls to Action are and how they came to be
- Why they are essential to truth, justice, and Reconciliation
- How colonial histories continue to shape present realities
- What it means to take responsibility and begin taking action.

Niigaan Sinclair is Anishinaabe from Peguis First Nation. He is an award-winning writer, editor and professor of Indigenous Studies at the University of Manitoba who was named by Maclean's magazine in 2022 as one of the most influential people in Canada.
